TEN ROUND CONTEST.

Couple of Elevator Boys Mix It Lively for Sports on Broker's Row,

"Just as the sun went down" last evening a number of the sporting fra-ternity wended their way to a certain basement near Brokers' row, to wit-ness a fistic contest for "points" and other things, but principally for blood. The combatants were a couple of elevator boys who are aspiring for puglis-tic fame. The affair was worked up very quietly, and from the sports' standpoint it was very successful,

There was genuine trouble for sure. That's how the scrap came about. The lads were not evenly matched, but it made no difference. One was tall, the other short. The tall one wouldn't let "shorty" ride on his 'lift," and a challenge was issued forthwith. So at the time stated the crowd assembled, the boys stripped to the waist, and put on the mitts. A certain broker who has a penchant for baseball and who was particularly in evidence at the brokers' ball game, was referee, and when he gave the word the lads went at it. To state it briefly, the small boy didn't give the big 'un a look in even. For ten rounds he hammered the big fellow who stayed Jeffries like and took the punishment. Both their faces looked not unlike mashed tomatoes before the eighth round, and it is hard to tell "what might have been" had not the bout been stopped in the tenth. The little fellow was given a well-earned decision over his towering opponent. After the fight a collection was taken up and the enormous sum of $218 was up and the enormous sum of $2.18 was given to the winner.

Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, June 11.-The second week of the Latonia Jockey club opened to day with fine weather and a good crowd. The track was fast. Jockey Breman, while going to the post of Lord Eberley in the first race, lost control of the horse and was thrown over the fence at the six-furlong pole. His left leg was broken and he was other-wise badly injured. For the first time during the season the judges had occa-sion to take action on foul riding. In the fourth race Xanthos cut off Nitrate and Problem and wa sset back. Sakatuck did the same thing to Fair Deceiver in the last race and was also disqualified. Jockey Michaels was the guilty party in both instances and was set down for the balance of the meeting for his poor judgment.
